

From The Times
January 11, 2010

Rail blasted by ice

Sir, Your report (Jan 7) of the death of Tsutomu Yamaguchi described how, having crawled from the wreckage of the Hiroshima bomb, he was able to board a train for Nagasaki. Our rail system was brought to a halt by six inches of snow.

Bob Bury

Leeds